

Athens, March 2022

Flexopack France participates in the International Exhibition Cifa Rennes 2022

The 25th edition of the Cifa Rennes 2022 International Food Fair (Rennes, 8-10 March 2022) has concluded with great success.

Flexopack France participated, with a stand of excellent aesthetics, at which we presented the latest technological developments in the field of flexible packaging.

The visitors of the booth had the opportunity to discuss with our specialized colleagues, regarding the best possible solutions to the issues of packaging of sensitive foods, always with a view to obtaining optimal shelf life and the sustainability of the packaging.

Thank you for your participation, we renew our appointment for next year!

Flexopack Group is a leading producer of flexible packaging used by major meat and cheese industries globally. Proudly celebrating 40 years of operational excellence, with multiple production facilities and subsidiaries around the world.

With significant presence across the Americas, Europe, Oceania and Asia, Flexopack offers expert advice on providing the best solutions for each customer.