Flexopack employees participate at Pink@Work 2022

Flexopack employees in Athens and Australia participated at the Breast Cancer awareness campaign "Pink@Work" on Friday October 21st.
We wore on our pink ribbon and proudly became a link in the chain for prevention and early diagnosis, for all the women in our lives!

Flexopack Group is a leading producer of flexible packaging used by major meat and cheese industries globally.
Proudly celebrating 40 years of operational excellence, with multiple production facilities and subsidiaries around the world.
With significant presence across the Americas, Europe, Oceania and Asia, Flexopack offers expert advice on providing the best solutions for each customer.
